will meet at Chicago, Wednesday, the 23d day be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.

Republicans, and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominees of the party, are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia, to represent them in the Convention.

The Democrats would be much relieved if there were no elections this fall. They dread the judgment of the people.

It will not give the Democrats any more peace of mind to hear that General Grant won't run. Blaine and Washburne are still in the way.

The worst libel ever printed on any candidate for office, is the Chicago Tribune's portraits of Grant, Blaine, Edmunds and Washburne.

In order that birds of one feather may flock together, Dr. Garcelon talks of taking up his residence with Tilden at No. 13, Gramercy Park. They will make good bedfellows.

It would show some signs of life if the Wisconsin Democracy would mention at least one Democrat it prefers for President. So far it seems to have no choice and no hope.

Except the impregnable strength of the Republican party, there is nothing that gives the Democrats so much concern as Tilden's health. They want him to die, but instead of dying, he is growing fat and making money.

The winter wheat in this section of the State will be more or less injured by the alternate freezing and thawing during the past winter. The early sown wheat promises very well, but that which was put in late, is below the average.

The Republicans in Milwaukee are taking a course regarding city government, which should be followed by the Republicans here—that of nominating the best business men in the city for the offices.
The Republicans here will do it, but the question is, will the Democrats follow the example?

Ex-Governor Solomon, of this State, now of New York, predicts that if General Grant be nominated he will lose Wisconsin. Undoubtedly there are many Republicans in this State who would prefer some other man than General Grant, but from what we have heard recently of ex-Governor Solomon, his prejudice against Grant is fully accounted for.

When Ben Hill engages in the solemn duties of worship after the wearisome day's session of the Senate is over, he can take the good book and read from the 65th Psalm, the pleasant words, "The little hills rejoice on every side." But the words of David do not have a soothing effect on the Senator, and the old Hill mourns and refuses to be comforted.

"Brick" Pomeroy seems to have abandoned his daily Democrat, and now publishes a weekly called "Pomeroy's Democrat." It will be run in the interest of the Greenback movement until after the election. In the meantime "Brick" will be deluded Greenbackers to the fullest extent of his power, and when they are covered with overwhelming defeat, he will laugh at their calamity, and change his paper to something else.

It is generally known that General Atwood and H. A. Tenney, of Madison, are preparing a volume of biographical sketches of the members of the Constitutional Conventions of 1846, and 1847-8. This work will soon be published. But there are some members whose fate or whereabouts cannot be given. Nothing has been heard of them for years. Those who belonged to the Convention of 1846, and who represented Rock county, and from whom nothing can be heard, are as follows: James Chamberlin, Beloit, George B. Hall, Milton; Joseph Kinzie, Janesville; Joseph Pierce, Summerville.
If any one knows what has become of these old pioneers, they will do the State a favor by contributing the information to the compilers of the work, at Madison.

GENERAL GRANT.

The Story of His Contemplated Withdrawal.

New York, March 26.—The Boston Advertiser's positive dispatch that Grant would withdraw stirred up all the Grant men here and they have been making indignant denials all day. Ex-Minister Boughton, a warm personal friend of the ex-President, says there is not the slightest probability that he will believe withdrawn, and he will undoubtedly accept the nomination, if he gets it. General Arthur declares it a ruse of the opponents. Many Republicans, however, are inclined to believe it, and are only too willing.

The Graphic, which is a Grant paper, says today that, despite all, the concluded in Grant's favor, it is by no means clear that he will be the nominee at the Chicago Convention.

NO HOPE

For Secretary Sherman in the Chicago Convention.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Ex Senator Matthews is reported to have said during his recent visit here that Secretary Sherman cannot possibly get the full delegation from Ohio to the Chicago convention; that he stands no earthly show for a nomination, and that if he should be nominated Ohio would go against the Republicans in November. Matthews has found little comfort in the role of moderate statesmanship, and has now taken the ultra wing.

NEW YORK.

The Warring Democratic Factions Trying to Decide When and Where to Hold the Convention.

New York, March 26.—The St. James swarmed to-day with adherents of the simon-pure regular Tilden Democracy of this State and city, the occasion being the regular State Committee meeting to name the name and place for the State Convention. Among these present there were three elements, a minority against Tilden in any event, select coteries for Tilden and nobody else, and a majority for Tilden, but willing to take the man nominated, whoever he may be.

A call was presented directing attention to the dangers threatening the Republic through the likelihood of Grant's nomination, and proposing a plan of Democratic harmony. This call was rejected by a vote of 29 to 4. The Tilden men then gained a victory by carrying a motion to leave the fixing of the date and place to a committee of five, the first proposition being to be called between April 20 and May 1.

Mr. Grannis, of Utica, spoke for that place. Some were afraid of Utica, he said, for fear Seymour might control the Convention in his own right. As to that he could say that Governor Seymour would not be a candidate in any sense under any circumstances. Notwithstanding all the report he said, the object in leaving time and place to a committee was to enable Tilden's men to get ahead of Kelly, and secure the best hall and all the hotel quarters in whatever place is chosen. Syracuse is favored by the Committee.

The Kelly mania meeting at St.
Nicholas Hotel was hardly successful.
There were few country members present, and they were opposed to the plan of announcing a Convention for the same date and place as the regular one. They wanted to wait till they saw what the Tilden-men did. It was Kelly's idea, however, to hold all the places of the absenters, and go ahead, so that he might have everything his own way. The usual crowd of his followers was on hand ready for a fight with anybody. It is claimed that Kelly has made such bargains in this city as will prevent Democratic harmony, no matter who is nominated.

MINNESOTA.

Springer Again Consulting Tilden Regarding the Stealing of a State.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—There was no meeting of the Committee on Elections today because Chairman Springer has gone to New York. Last Tuesday it was agreed that the Washburn-Donnelly case should be disposed of to-day, and the Republican members came to the committee room prepared to vote. It was announced that Springer had left for New York last night, and had requested that action be postponed until his return. The committee very kindly accommodated Mr. Springer, although it is quite singular that he should leave for New York the night before an important meeting of a committee of which he is Chairman when, to all intents and purposes, he could have delayed his departure for twenty hours. Springer's mysterious visit to New York have been frequent, and not entirely disconnected with Mr. Tilden's plans. The dilemma in which Mr. Springer finds himself with reference to the Washburn-Donnelly case requires Tilden's suggestions, as the latter is responsible for originating the case, and Springer looks to him to help him out.
Only four of the Committee on Elections out of the fifteen can be induced to assent to the report of the sub-committee seating Donnelly, and unless Donnelly can be seated it will be used to turn Washburn out. The situation is serious, and Springer wants Tilden's great moral influence in inducing the other Democrats to fall.

ANOTHER FALL.

A Fashionable Buffalo Bookkeeper
Short Only $10,000.

BUFFALO, March 26.—E. E. Benedict, belonging to one of the best families in Buffalo, and who lately married a wealthy young lady in New York, has just been arrested on the charge of defaulting his employer out of $10,000. The history of the case is an interesting one. In 1878 Benedict began work as a bookkeeper for Mr. Moses Smith, banker. In the fall of 1879 he met a Miss Alice Blomard, of New York, daughter of a prominent importing merchant of that city. Later he asked for a vacation, and was allowed it. During his absence it was discovered that his books were in a bad shape, and it was ascertained that he had changed one check from $14 to $214. A thorough investigation showed that he had been carrying on a systematic robbery of Mr. Smith, and his stealings amounted to about $10,000. After these startling developments were made the young man was sent for, when he returned, and his transactions being made known to him, he made a clean breast, and told the whole story. As he was the only son of a widow, Mr. Smith decided to give him a chance to return the stolen money.

LOGAN'S GREAT SPEECH.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Senator Logan's great speech on Fitz John Porter is at last published, and covers over forty-five pages of the Congressional Record, much of the space being occupied with extracts from official reports and testimony in fine type. It would fill something like seventy columns of an ordinary newspaper, or the entire space in the whole paper and half of another, and is by far the largest speech ever delivered in Congress.
It is accompanied by a large map of the battle-ground, which is the first production of this sort that has graced the columns of this interesting periodical.

WHEELER.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Vice President Wheeler contemplates leaving Washington in the early part of May, not to return during the remainder of the session.
When he leaves Judge Thurman will be elected pro tem.

SAD ACCIDENT.

ST. PAUL, March 26.—A special to the Pioneer-Press says a gun fell from the hands of Mr. Boulden, living in the town of Waverly, Rice County, and the bullet passing through the door pierced the heart of his daughter, 19 years old. She died in ten minutes.

FROM DOWN EAST.

To the Editor.

FRANCE, N.J., March 24.—I take the time to say a word on the political looks of the day here in New Jersey. I supposed from what I read while in Rock county that the majority of the voters in the East were strong for General Grant.
Yet after a three weeks' stay "in my old home, associating with Republicans of various politicalities, I have found but one single voter whose choice is Grant. Many, perhaps the majority, are for Blaine. Many and this surprises me, are for Washburne, a very few for Sherman, but all, save the single exception, are opposed to Grant.
They oppose the third term last week a economically as he could. He walked into a store and asked to see some given a cartridge. "Excuse me for using this minute," he said to the shopkeeper, apologetically; and, stepping back from the counter, shot himself through the brain.

—Ed. McKee returned, last evening, from New York, where he has been buying more goods for McKee Bros.

—M. M. Conant has sold his house on Jackson street to Mr. Calkins, and has moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. Calkins, on Pleasant street.

—The Janesville postoffice is now made a French money order office. Any one desiring to send money to France can now do so, provided they have got any to send.

—Rev. Mr. Henry, of Chicago, who was expected to preach at the Baptist church two weeks ago, but who was prevented by illness, is to occupy the pulpit of that church to-morrow.

—On account of ill health Mr. Sanderson has sold his one-third interest in the business college to J. E. Mallory, who will in connection with J. B. Silsbee open an English academy.

—T. F. Murray received the sad news yesterday by telegraph, that his father, an old man who had reached his four score years, had died at his home in Erie county, near Buffalo, N. Y.

—Fred H. Walte, who works on W. H. Howard's farm, received a telegram yesterday that his brother, Charles F. Walte, had died in Leadville, and that the remains were to be sent home for interment.

—J. M. Bostwick returned from New York last evening as hale and hearty as ever. He has been putting in full time buying the nicest things he could find in the market to supply the customers of Smith & Bostwick.

—The Pierce forgery case, which has been on trial at Monroe, ended to-day. The jury after having been out all night, returned a verdict of not guilty. Messrs. Bennett & Winans, of this city, and Mr. Douglas, of Monroe, defended him.

—At the Guards masquerade no one will be allowed upon the floor without masks until after 11 o'clock. Maskers will enter Milwaukee street entrance and visitors will enter on Jackson street. Admission to gallery 25 cents, tickets to dance 75 cents, ladies free. Tickets can be secured at Prentice & Evenson, or at the door, no invitations necessary to the gallery.

—We are in receipt of a bright-eyed four page paper called the Wisconsin Dairyman, and published at Fort Atkinson, by Cornish & Curtis, the enterprising manufacturers of all sorts of butter making machinery, and the famous rectangular churn. They are pushing their business lively, and their goods seem to be fully as popular as a perusal of their paper indicates.

—There was a crowded house to greet Miss Jennie Atwater last evening. The lecture room of Court street church, where the readings were given, was filled to overflowing, and considerable enthusiasm was shown. Miss Atwater has a very pleasing appearance, and does very good work indeed, her powers of mimicry being especially good. Mr. Will Folksbee, Mrs. H. A. Smith, and Mrs. C. B. Conrad, with Prof. Titcomb, as accompanist, furnished the music.

—The concert to be given at the Opera house, next Tuesday evening, is to be a real treat, as most of our citizens know. Miss Carrington is one of those real musical artists, who have stirred the musical circles of both continents, and who rank to-day among the highest in the world, and the Quintet Club is of no less high rank. We notice that in Fond du Lac there was a big rush for tickets the other day. In less than three hours after the sale of tickets commenced, there were 200 reserved seats sold. There is the promise of a very large house here, as a large number of seats have already been taken. Every one ought to be, for such musical treats are seldom given Janesville.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The Preparations for the Spring Campaign—Some of the Candidates Named.

The political pot began to steam a little, but has not fairly reached a boiling point yet. There is some talk as to who will be candidates, and many guesses, but little work has been done yet.

The Republicans, as has already been noted, have perfected an organization, but no nominations have been made. Their ward committees met last evening, and decided to hold the Republican City Convention, at the City Hall, next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to nominate candidates for the several city offices. They also decided to hold the ward caucuses, for nominating delegates, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the following places:

First ward—City Hall.
Second ward—Water Witch Engine House.

Third ward—Court House.
Fourth ward—Hatherell's shop.
Fifth ward—Luther Clark's shop.

There is of course great uncertainty yet as to who will be the candidates. Many names are talked of, and some persons are thought of, who will probably decline to run, but from the chatting among prominent of each party we learn that S. C. Cobb and W. T. Vankirk are probable candidates for Mayor on the Republican ticket. On the other side of the house David Davies is spoken of, and many want Dr. St. John to run.

For City Clerk, Charles E. Church is spoken of as the probable candidate of the Republicans. The present incumbent, Mr. Burgess, will be the opposing candidate.

For City Treasurer, the present occupant of the office, J. M. Haselton, is the only candidate mentioned.

For Justice of the Peace, L. F. Patten and Henry Blanchard are among those talked of on the Republican side of the house. The present Justice A. D. Wickham, is understood to be desirous of reelection, and will probably be the Democratic nominee. It is whispered about that F. Whitaker may be a candidate for either this office or that of Police Justice.

For Police Justice, there are a few names mentioned, Tom S. Nolan is prominently spoken of by the Republicans, and the present Justice, M. S. Prichard is said to be a probable candidate again.

City Attorney E. F. Carpenter will likely be the Republican candidate again. The Democratic camp are anxious to bring out Wm. Smith, with George G. Sutherland as second choice.

The struggle for Aldermanic honors is by no means clearly defined yet. In the First ward the names of H. S. Woodruff, J. A. Dennison, and Ed. Mordock are among those spoken of as Republican candidates. Ald. Davies, the present member of the Board, it is understood, declines to run again, and the Democrats are talking of either Daniel Dowling or C. Lilly. Some say that E. D. Tallman wants to run as an independent candidate.

In the Second ward, to fill the seat now occupied by W. T. Vankirk, the Republicans are talking of O. F. Nowlan. Among the oppositionists are mentioned A. C. Kent and Dr. C. Loftus Martin.

The Third ward Republicans are talking of F. Kimball and C. B. Conrad. On the other side it is understood that Ald. Church will not run again, unless Ans Rogers runs. H. D. McKlenny, whose name has been mentioned, says he is not a candidate.

In the Fourth ward Ald. Joyce's term is up. The Republicans will probably nominate either S. Norris or J. A. Blount. Dr. St. John's name is mentioned with favor by the Democrats, and some are urging the claims of Henry Dewey.

Ald. Fitzgibbon of the Fifth ward closes his term. Some of his pets urge him to run again as a vindication, but it is understood that he declines. Among those named by the Republicans is J. B. Hume. It is thought possible that G. C. McLean may be induced by his friends to accept a nomination. Peter Leashey and William Hemming are among those named by the Democrats.

As for School Commissioners there is little talk. S. C. Buraham retires as Commissioner from the Second ward, and C. L. Valentine is talked of as the Republican nominee to fill the vacancy.

The present Constables, Taylor, Cutts, Parker, and Drake will probably be in the field again. It is said that Kenniston, who was for a time the jailor, is willing to serve as Constable of the Fourth ward.

Such seems to be all the talk which is to be gathered at present. Concerning the County Supervisors there is little said as yet, though the present ones will probably be in the field again.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

A Young Man Killed by a Railroad Train Near Hanover, Last Evening.

Last evening a young man named Ole Peter Severson met with a sudden and terrible death, by being run over by a train on the Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, between Hanover and Orfordville.

The trainmen did not notice the man on the track, and knew nothing of the accident. It seems that Severson, whose home is at Orfordville, was in Janesville yesterday, and left here on the noon train for Hanover. He started out of Hanover on foot sometime during the afternoon, and on reaching the house of a friend, about three miles east of Orfordville, stopped there.

There was a little party going on in the evening, but he left rather early, and started for home along the track. When the gathering broke up some young ladies, who were there, started for home, and on their way along the track came across a hat, and a little further his mangled body.

The alarm was given, and neighbors came hurrying to the spot, and removed the remains to one of their houses. The body was fearfully mutilated, and death must have been instant. Some thought that he was struck by lightning and then run over. Others think he was under the influence of drink, and lay down in a stupor. Some who know the young man assert that he was not in the habit of drinking, and that when he left Janesville he was perfectly sober, and that on meeting a party of friends in Hanover he there refused to drink anything stronger than pop.

Severson was a Norwegian, aged about twenty-one years. The only relative he has living in this country is a sister. He has for several years lived in and about Orfordville, being employed as a farm hand and as a laborer, and bore the reputation of being an honest, hard working young man.

BENNETT'S BUILDINGS.

The buildings owned by A. P. Bennett, and which are to be removed to make way for the new brick block to be built by him at once, were sold this afternoon at auction. The large building on the corner was sold to C. T. Wilcox for $160. The building occupied by Mr. Gookins and Mr. Hutton was sold to T. E. Cook for $60. Mr. Wilcox thinks of moving the large building onto his lot near the depot, where the hotel was burned down. Mr. Cook bought the other building for other parties.

WE GO AGAIN

No use of talking—have got to have a guardian appointed to keep us from giving away goods. Every day, rain or snow, mud or slush, they will come in and buy something, if nothing more than a box of ten cent collars.

When a fellow gets up on his ear, and hitches four horses and a mule to a stone boat, to come through the mud for a new suit of clothes, it shows that he means business. We should have sold the suit to him all the same if he had taken only one horse and then walked in. Receiving goods every day for little old men, big young boys, and large sized infants. We keep good goods to sell, and sell good goods for keeps. One more lot of those twenty five cent overalls, just received from the Hub.

Fifty dozen more of those ten cent socks. Goods sent by telephone or on postal cards when desired, if cash comes with the order.
